

Revised: Fall 2016

SOC 266

Race and Ethnicity

COURSE OUTLINE

Prerequisites: None

Course Description:

Considers race and ethnicity as social constructs that deeply affect our personal experience and our social institutions. Examines the relationships of racial and ethnic groups with each other and with the larger society, and the ways in which these relationships are constantly changing. Explores the experience of different groups and examines ideas of racial justice and equality. Introduces significant theoretical approaches to the study of race and ethnicity.

Students will be introduced to useful skills for sociological analysis and interpretation. Students will strengthen skills in interdisciplinary studies and global awareness.

Semester Credits: 3 Lecture Hours: 3

VIRGINIA WESTERN COMMUNITY COLLEGE
PO Box 14007
Roanoke, VA 24038
(540)-857-7273

SOC 266: Race and Ethnicity

Course Outcomes:

At the completion of this course, the student should be able to:

- Develop a better understanding of their cultural background and how that perspective influences their perceptions of the world.
- Understand the issues of diversity related to ethnicity, race, gender, sexual orientation, disability and socio-economic status through the course readings and discussion.
- Develop a greater understanding of and respect for ways of thinking, feeling, living and expressing spirituality that may be different from their own.
- Develop an understanding of social and economic conditions that promote prejudice, racism, discrimination and segregation.

VIRGINIA WESTERN COMMUNITY COLLEGE
PO Box 14007
Roanoke, VA 24038
(540)-857-7273

SOC 266: Race and Ethnicity

Required Materials:

1. Textbook
2. Internet access
3. Blackboard

Textbook:

Fiske-Rusciano, Roberta. Experiencing Race, Class and Gender in the United States. Boston, Mass.: McGraw-Hill Higher Education, 5th ed., 2009. ISBN: 9780073528144

The following supplementary materials are available: None

VIRGINIA WESTERN COMMUNITY COLLEGE
PO Box 14007
Roanoke, VA 24038
(540)-857-7273

SOC 266: Race and Ethnicity

Topical Description:

- Racial & Ethnic Identity
- Sexual Identity
- Economics and the American Dream
- Power & Sexism
- Power & Classism
- Taking Action
- Change Makers
- Race, Class, and Gender

VIRGINIA WESTERN COMMUNITY COLLEGE
PO Box 14007
Roanoke, VA 24038
(540)-857-7273

SOC 266: Race and Ethnicity

Notes to Instructors

- None

VIRGINIA WESTERN COMMUNITY COLLEGE
PO Box 14007
Roanoke, VA 24038
(540)-857-7273

