

Revised: Spring 2017

HMS 226

Helping Across Cultures

COURSE OUTLINE

Prerequisites: None

Course Description:

Provides an historical overview of selected cultural and racial groups. Promotes understanding of group differences and the impact on counseling services.

Semester Credits: 3 Lecture Hours: 3

HMS 226: Helping Across Cultures

Course Outcomes:

At the completion of this course, the student should be able to:

- Identify Treatment Options for People from Various Groups
- Identify Stereotypes of Various Groups
- Identify Minority Groups and their Place in History

HMS 226: Helping Across Cultures

Required Materials:

1. Internet access
2. Blackboard

Textbooks:

The following supplementary materials are available: None

HMS 226: Helping Across Cultures

Topical Description:

- Minority Groups
- History of Minority Groups
- Treatment Options
- Stereotypes