

Revised: Fall 2012
Spring 2012
Fall 2013
Fall 2014
Fall 2015
Fall 2016

ADJ 229

Law Enforcement and Community

COURSE OUTLINE

Prerequisites: None

Course Description:

Considers current efforts by law enforcement personnel to achieve an effective working relationship with the community. Surveys and analyzes various interactive approaches of law enforcement agencies and the citizenry they serve.

Semester Credits: 3 Lecture Hours: 3

VIRGINIA WESTERN COMMUNITY COLLEGE
PO Box 14007
Roanoke, VA 24038
(540)-857-7273

ADJ 229: Law Enforcement and Community

Course Outcomes:

At the completion of this course, the student should be able to:

- Provide an overview of policing efforts around the country
- Understand various policing approaches
- Compare Community Policing and Traditional Policing Approaches
- Learn problem solving and creative approaches in the community
- Form partnerships and crime prevention programs
- Understand the police role and issues they face daily
- Articulate various communication techniques

VIRGINIA WESTERN COMMUNITY COLLEGE
PO Box 14007
Roanoke, VA 24038
(540)-857-7273

ADJ 229: Law Enforcement and the Community

Required Materials:

1. Internet access
2. Blackboard
3. Textbook

Textbook:

Community Policing, Partnerships for Problem Solving, 7th edition

Author: Miller

ISBN# 978-130-500-3279

The following supplementary materials are available: None

VIRGINIA WESTERN COMMUNITY COLLEGE
PO Box 14007
Roanoke, VA 24038
(540)-857-7273

ADJ 229: Law Enforcement and the Community

Topical Description:

- Evolution of Community Policing
- Problem solving within the community
- Communicating with a diverse population
- Building partnerships
- Working with the media
- Crime prevention
- Safe neighborhoods
- Drug interdiction
- Working with delinquent youths
- Identification of gangs
- Counter-terrorism efforts

VIRGINIA WESTERN COMMUNITY COLLEGE
PO Box 14007
Roanoke, VA 24038
(540)-857-7273

