

Virginia Western Community College

MUS 122

Music Appreciation II

Prerequisites

None

Course Description

Increases the variety and depth of the student's interest, knowledge, and involvement in music and related cultural activities. Acquaints the student with traditional and twentieth century music literature, emphasizing the relationship music has as an art form with man and society. Increases the student's awareness of the composers and performers of all eras through listening and concert experiences. Part II of II.

The student will explore various time periods and cultures, along with historical and societal references through instrumental and vocal music. The students will be introduced to a variety of musical compositions, forms, instruments, and composers of each historical era. The student will learn to identify musical works and instruments through listening experiences, while becoming acquainted with basic musical terminology. Music 122 covers the nineteenth and 20th centuries.

Semester Credits: 3

Lecture Hours: 3

Required Materials

1. Textbook
2. CD's and other online materials that accompany the textbook
3. Internet access
4. Canvas

Textbook:

Choose One:

Forney & Machlis: The Enjoyment of Music. Shorter Version with Total Access. 12th, edition, W.W.Norton,. ISBN: 978-0-393-93638-4.

Forney, Norton Recordings: The Enjoyment of Music. Shorter Version with 4 CD's and Total Access, 12th edition, W.W. Norton ISBN: 978-0-393-27910-8.

Forney, Norton: Total Access stand alone version 12th ed. ISBN# 978-0-393-93789-3

Other Required Materials:

CDs and/or online musical and written quizzes, flash cards, and other materials that accompany the textbook.

Course Outcomes

At the completion of this course, the student should be able to:

- Recognize musical vocabulary.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the characteristics for the musical elements of each period such that he/she can place a musical piece in its proper time period.
- Demonstrate a basic understanding of the history and visual art works that influenced each period of music.
- Recognize key composers and demonstrate a basic understanding of their lives and how their experiences influenced their work.
- Recognize major musical pieces, knowing the composer musical characteristics of each piece.

Topical Description

MUS 122 covers periods from the 19th century through the present including:

1	A quick overview of the history and visual arts of each time period.
2	An overview of how the music developed relative to the time from which it came.
3	A list of musical pieces from each period.
4	A discussion of composers, if known, and their place in the period.
5	A discussion of the musical characteristics of each piece.

Notes to Instructors

None