

Virginia Western Community College

ART 199

Supervised Study

Prerequisites

None

Course Description

Assigns problems for independent study incorporating previous instruction and supervised by the instructor.

May be repeated for credit. Variable hours.

1-5 credits

Semester Credits: 2

Lecture Hours: 1- 2

Studio Hours: 0

Required Materials

Textbook:

None

Other Required Materials:

None

Course Outcomes

At the completion of this course, the student should be able to:

- Recognize the role of media in politics, society, and culture in the global arena.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the industry and the functions of the various mass media.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the research process for media messages.
- Demonstrate an understanding of ethics and the laws that govern the mass media industry
- Complete a video vignette as a final project that incorporates and demonstrates master of all phases of video and multimedia production in all phases of the process.
- Demonstrate an understanding of Final Cut Express non-Linear Editing Software.

Topical Description

1	The Role of Media in Politics
2	The Role of Media and Culture
3	Media Industry
4	Research Process for Media Messages
5	Ethics
6	Laws that Govern the Mass Media Industry
7	Non-Linear Editing

Notes to Instructors